

VANE ROAD PRIMARY SCHOOL

WEEKLY ROUND-UP

2nd to 6th DECEMBER 2024

Another busy week in school!

Year 6 held their parent workshop this week where parents/carers came into school to make Mayan masks together. There were some wonderful designs and all children enjoyed their time together.

Our netball team were competing last week and came home with first place. Our athletics team were also in action this week and also came home with first place. Both teams now have the opportunity to compete in the Spring term. Well done to all!

All of our children visit the library each term and thoroughly enjoy sharing books together. I wanted to share with you a program they are running each Monday for four weeks- 4.30pm – 5.30pm called Chatterbooks. The aim is to develop a love of reading and is for children in Years 5 and 6. If you are interested please contact the library as spaces are limited.

Finally, a reminder that breakfast and after school club bookings must be made at least 3 days in advance. Friday 5pm cut-off for any Monday bookings. Any bookings after this time may not be accepted.

A reminder of all our important upcoming dates can be found below.

Have a lovely weekend.
